CONTRACT

I contract with Victory Churches International (VCI) to act according to the disciplines of the Christian faith, to conduct myself appropriately, whatever country I am in, and will not consciously violate local customs. I will not make arrangements or promises with nationals without prior consent by local leadership of VCI. I will not publicly criticize the ministry or country in which I serve and will prayerfully support each ministry and worker.

I certify that I will have sufficient finances before I commence travel on this trip. In addition, that I have either medical insurance to cover my expenses or finances sufficient to cover any medical emergency. Also, that I have life insurance or a statement of liability by next of kin that they will assume financial responsibility for expenses incurred in case of death, injury, or other emergency.

I understand my responsibilities toward the ministry and relationship with VCI in accordance with the attached document.

After completing my time of service on the field, I will return to the home church from which I was sent.

I understand that violation of any of the above promises could result in immediate dismissal and return to my home country.
